Polish Question To Be Subject Of Negotiations

CONTENTS OF MESSAGES KEPT DISCLOSED FROM HOUSE

LONDON, AUG. 29 (REUTER)—THE GOVERNMENT HAD RECEIVED A RECORD OF SIR NEVILE HENDER-SON'S INTERVIEW WITH HERR HITLER FROM THE former last Friday evening, said the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain in his speech before the House of Commons to-day, but as it had to be deciphered he only saw the whole of it on Saturday morning. He was, however, able to indicate in full terms some of the main points with which it dealt.

"Herr Hitler was concerned to impress upon His Majesty's Government the wish for Anglo-German understanding of a complete and lasting character. On the other hand, he left us in no doubt of his view regarding the urgency of settlement of the German-Polish question. His Majesty's Government have also frequently expressed their desire to see the realisation of such an Anglo-German understanding and as soon as circumstances permit they would naturally permit the opportunity for discussing with Germany the several issues, settlement of which have to find a place in any permanent agreement (cheers).

"But everything turns upon the manner in which the immediate differences between Germany and Poland can be handled (cheers) and the nature of the proposals which might be made for we have made it plain that our obligations to Poland, which came into formal state by an agreement signed on August 25, will be carried out (cheers)."

The Government had stated more than once and publicly that the German-Polish differences should be capable of solution by peaceful means.

the importance of the London post in the future foreign policy of Japan makes it desirable to keep him in London, where he is personally popular and is, moreover. recognized as one of the ablest of the Japanese diplomats. Japanese opinion is now unanimous that Japan will remain neutral in a European war. In the meantime, Mr. Shigemitsu is in constant communication with Tokyo. and his advice is an important factor in framing the new Japanese foreign policy which is now under discussion.

Queen Victoria Feared "Curse" On Koh-i-noor

The Kah-I-Noor diamond has been returned to the Tower of London, and is now on view in the Jewel House.

The Koh-I-Noor was removed from the Tower by detectives shortly before the King and Queen paid their State visit to France last year. With another bigger, though less valuable and less celebrated, diamond, the Lesser Star of Africa, it was taken to France in a steel jewel-case to be worn by the Queen in a collection of jewels worth £1,500,000.

of the Queen, and not a jewel of the British Crown Regalia. For centuries tales of hor-

Col. E. S. Doughty's Talk At Rotary Tiffin

Interesting facts and sidelights on the geography, economy and everyday life of the Canadian prairies were dexterously woven into an illuminating and good-humoured talk by Lt.-Col. E. S. Doughty, D.S.O., Canadian Government Immigration Commissioner, at the weekly tiffin of the Rotary Club held at the Hong kong Hotel yesterday.

Major R. D. Walker presiding came from all parts of the world ed, and welcomed the following visiting Rotarians, Dr. James M. Henry (Rotary District Governor from Canton), E. L. Pau (Tsinan) and P. members that a telegram had been i received to the effect that Director Curry, of the Rotary International, would arrive to-day. Dr. Henry would like all Directors of local "Club to meet Director Curry at a tiffin at the Gloucester Hotel to-morrow.

The accounts for the past year, as circulated, were then approved. POTENTIALLY WEALTHY

The prairies of Canada are so vast, so interesting, and so potentially wealthy, said Lt. Col. Doughty, that a novelette or a condensed friendly talk is difficult. To give you an idea of the location and extent of the prairies I could best describe it by saying that if you imagine an oblong 300 miles wide and 800 miles long. lying along the international boundary with the city of Calgary at the western end and with faroff Winnipeg at the other end, you will fully realise the extent of the prairies.

The prairies have a harsh climate because of the extreme cold. It is influenced more by the North Pole than by any of the oceans. EDITURIAL

Sir, - May I through your columns make a further appeal for volunteers for Essential Service? There are many people whose normal occupation will automatically cease if an emergency overtakes this Colony and volunteers for whole time service will. I am sure, continue to come forward from amongst the ranks of such people without any prompting or my part. The men to whom I particularly wish to address this present appeal are those whose normal work. even under emergency conditions will still require either a part, or the whole of their usual attention. I feel it may not be gen erally realised that there is much work of an essential character Xavier. which can be carried out by such people without in any way interfering with their other duties and. in some cases, with but little personal inconvenience.

GRAVITY OF EUROPEAN SITUATION INCREASED: FRENCH FRONTIERS CLOSED-NO DIRECT TRAIN SERVICE WITH GERMANY NO INKLING OF NATURE

Tension & Expectancy In Berlin: Matters Now Approaching Decision

PARIS, Aug. 29 (Reuter) - France has closed her frontiers with Germany and there is no longer any direct train service with Germany.

The closing of the Franco-German frontiers, perhaps more than any other measure, has brought home to the man-in-the-street, the gravity of the situation.

Another measure, speaking eloquently of the position, was yesterday's order prohibiting private telephone calls abroad and to the provinces.

British newspaper correspondents having to telegraph their stories last night used the telephone instead, and all telegrams, whether private or press, were censored, whether to or from the provinces or abroad.

The Foreign Exchanges, however, were fairly active, with further wide fluctuations in the sterling-dollar rate. After opening 4.38, the rate fell to 4.10 before rallying to 4.28

STOCK EXCHANGE ...

On the Stock Exchange, gold mining and oils were marked up, reflecting the higher gold " price and the strength of the dollar, respectively.

There were no official dealings in internationals owing to the ward against 25/-. Treasury's ban on dealings of certain overseas securities.

STERLING DECRINES

NEW YORK, Aug. 29 (Reuter)-In the Foreign Exchange market sterling again declined, reflecting the further stress in Europe during the week-end. However, there was a little business, with rates purely nominai.

Other European exchanges "were also subject to pressure, but it is held, however, that their losses were moderate.

THETIS INSURANCE

Underwriters To Pay Builders

A settlement has been arranged between Messrs. Cammell Laird, the Birkenhead builders of the submarine Thetis, now lying 150 feet below the surface in Liverpool Bay, and London and Liverpool underwriters regarding the insurance of the vessel.

An agreed amount will now be paid by the underwriters to the builders. For insurance purposes the Thetis was valued at ap- lers. proximately £350,000: The submarine has now been taken out of Lloyds' reinsurance list following the agreement.

Settlement of the insurance question, according to the Admiralty, however, will have no effect on salvage operations, which will be continued so long as there is the slightest chance of raising the submarine.

Market very steady, with some Home trade enquiry. Rubber stocks held in the United Kingdom for the week ending August 26 amounted to 45.621 tons being a decline of 5.067 tons.

NEW YORK COTTON

Lower advices from abroad and the weakness of the Sterling exchange caused a lower opening here and prices declined further on speculators selling, liquidation and on Wall Street and foreign selling.

NEW YORK RUBBER

Despite favourable cables from the primary markets, prices here declined on lack of any improvement in the situation in Europe and general nervousness as to the outlook. The continued depreciation in-Sterling is also an adverse factor.

CHICAGO WHEAT

The market opened sharply higher on firm Liverpool advices and later advanced on general buying following more pessimistic reports from the Continent. There was some profit-taking at the higher levels and prices reacted partially towards the close.

"MY LIFE'S WORK VINDICATED"

The British Medical Journal announces that a film demonstrating Sir Herbert Barker's methods of manipulative surgery has been made in the orthopaedic department of St. Thomas's Hospital.

Sir Herbert stated on August 14 that he regards this announcement as a full vindication of his fight for nearly half a century to get the principles of manipulative surgery acknowledged by the medical profession.

"My work has been fully recognised and justified, and I am being very well treated by the medical profession. They are now trying to make the amende honourable, and I am satisfied for myself.

"I propose in the very near future, to take definite steps to have the records of his expulsion expunged from the register, and his name restored there.

"I made a promise to his widow to do so, and I shall not rest conmemory."

Sir, Herbert Barker explained that the film followed a demonstration of his methods in 1936 at St. Thomas's Hospital before an audience of the foremost orthopaedic surgeons of the day, with Lord Moynihan presiding, and Mr. W. safety. Rowley Bristow, then president of the British Orthopaedic Association, also present.

"I dealt with 18 selected cases and the audience were astonished at the results." he said.

"I have visited the hospitals in the province and was grieved to find that many of the expectant mothers admitted into the hospitals for confinement were heavily infected with hookworm," states Dr. C. T. Williams, Supervising Officer of the Malaria Control Scheme. North Western Province, in the course of a report submitted to the Executive Committee of Health drawing attention to the wide prevalence of hookworm and other intestinal parasites in the rural population of the area. hookworm ranks only second in importance to malaria as a public health problem.

Hookworm and other intestina parasites—the chief of which the round worm—is the cause much sickness, suffering and death in the province.

HIGH DEATH RATE The high death rate among preschool children is primarily attributed to the round worm which is said to be widely prevalent.

"The dangerous effects of hookworm disease." the report states, "en a woman in labour is not widely known. It has been proved that if the haemoglobin percentage is below 30, as a result of hookworm disease, the prognosis to mother is very grave. Death o the mother invariably occurs either immediately after birth of the child, or soon after. We have therefore made it a practice in al over ante-natal clinics to treat every expectant mother for hookworm. Treatment is one of the best methods of control of the disease and with that end in view 34,255 persons have been treated from January to May this year."
